A GREAT DAY.

THE REASON WITY

we give periodical opening days is to demonstrate the enormous stock we carry, and also to challenge com-parison of our prices with those of our competitors, some of our competitors have been forced to abolish opening days, for, on comparison of prices, the growd all come to the Palals Royal.

liar scene was enacted. The day before Jadge Wylie peremptorily declared that Mr. B. F. Bigelow must be brought in to plead or else his bond would be forfeited. At 10 o'clock a closed carriage drove up to the court-house, followed by Dr. B. B. Adams in his buggy. Mr. Bigelow was carried by Deputy Marshals Henry and Taylor into the court-room and placed upon a pillowed lounge, and completely covered by a robe and blanket. Near him were his father, father-in-law, brother-in-law, Mrs. Lockwood, his physician, and other friends. He lay with his eyes closed, and appeared to be very much exhausted. The court decided that the indictments need not be read, but the contents simply stated. Mr. W. E. Williams did this, and the defendant pleaded not guilty. The bonds aiready given were acknowledged good, and Mr. Higelow was then removed by his friends. After leaving the criminal court Mr. Bigelow was driven to the police court, and taken into Judge Snell's private office to answer to a new warrants sworn out by Mr. Bradley on the 6th of last month, charging him with embezzing $1,000 from the National Bank of the Republic. By the advice of his counsel he waived an examination and gave bonds in $2,000, Mrs. Lockwood and Dr. B. B. Adams becoming sureties. It was very evident to every one in court that Mr. Bigelow was not able to be out of his room, and his enfeebled condition fully sustained the certificate made by his own medical attendant and other of the most experienced physicians in the District, which was presented to Judge Wylie on Monday.

The court in general term on Tuesday passed the following rule: Whenever any porson convicted in the police court of any offense against the municipal laws of the District of Columbia shall appeal from the judgment of said court the clerk of said court shall, within five days of the rendition of said judgment, send up the record of the case to the criminal court.

As soon as the appellant shall have made a depart of $5 for costs, or obtained leave from one of the justices or from the court to prosecute his appeal without deposit, the clerk shall docket the cause for trial.

If the appellant shall fail to perfect his appeal by making the deposit or obtaining leave as a foresaid within ten days after the record shall be sent up, the judge holding the criminal court shall, on motion of the attoriety for the District or one of his assistants, order the papers to be returned and the cause remained to the police court, there to be be proceeded with as if no appeal had been taken. In all cases in which appeals have heretofore been taken, the appellant shall make the deposit or obtain the leave aforesaid within ten days from the adoption of this rule, and in default thereof the judge holding the criminal court shall, on meton of the attorney for the District, or one of his assistants, order the paper to be returned, and the case to be remanded to the police court, there to be proceeded with as if no appeal had been taken.

sold at the various booths at the Capitol for the matinee performance which took place yesterday at the National Theater, for the benefit of the Garfield Monument Fund, but if all that were sold were represented in the audience the fund will not be materially increased. The ladies and gendlemen of the Black Flag Combination volunteered their services, Mr. John Albaugh gave the free use of the theater, and the performance was given to a very slim attendance.

A similar matinee will be given this afternoon at Ford's Opera House, the "Only a Farmer's Daughter" Troupe having also volunteered to play for the benefit of the Garfield Monument Fund, and Mr. Ford having tendered the use of the theater. There was an increased attendance to see this play last night, and it remains to be seen whether the object for which the performance to-day is given will attract more than the play itself.

The Washington Lecture Lyccum announces a course of six lectures at the Congregational course of six lectures at the Congregational Church, which for prominence of the people who deliver the lectures and the subjects of their discourses is more than usually attractive. The first of the course will take place on Tuesday, becomber 12, and will be delivered by the Rev. John Hall, D. D., of New York, on the subject "The Scriptures and the Seiences." This locture is new and will be of no little interest. Rev. De Witt Taimage, Rev. Joseph Cook, Rev. Robert Collyer, and Mr. John B. Gough will follow in quick succession. The number of course tickets has been limited to 800, and are to be had at the remarkably low rate of $2.50 at Froe's bookstore, No. 1316 F street; Whitaker's. 941 Fennsylvania avenue; Bailantyne's, No. 428 Seventh street, and Chapman's, 941 Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Nellie Brown-Mitchell. Mrs. Mitchell, the distinguished prima donna of Boston, who is to sing at Lincoln Hall Thursday night, is regarded in New England as one of the night, is regarded in New England as one of the most pleasing songstres-es of that section. Even the Canadians go into costacios over her singing. One of their papers, speaking of her singing with Mr. P. P. Bilss at Thou-and Island Park, has this to say; "As to the singing by Mr. P. P. Bilss and Mrs. Nellie Brown-Mitchell, it seems that we are all in the third heaven at once, at d that it is almost sacrilege to come down to meaner things." Lincoln Hall should be filled Thursday evening with our best citizens to hear Mrs. Mitchell. They would be well paid for going. Re-erved-seat tickets are for sale at Ellis's music store without extra charge.

Robey, convicted of assult with intent to kill. Judge Wylle refused the motion, and in doing so said that when a prisoner was found guilty of having committed a crime his proper place was in the penitentiary, and not the insane asylum. And while on this subject he said he night as well give notice to all insane persons about to commit a crime that if they were brought before him they would possibly share the same fate as the defendant. He was sentenced to Erie for two years.

that will long be remembered in the annals of that will long be remembered in the annals of legal history in this District—closed Tuesday morning, Judge Wyite dismissing the petit jurors with his thanks. In discharging them he said they were entitled to the thanks of the court for their work, for they had performed their duties with intelligence, and he thought it was one of the most intelligence, and he thought it was one of the most intelligent juries he had ever had in this court, not a single verdict having been rendered in which he did not concur.
